

COL. W. P. WALTON DIES IN LEXINGTON

One of State's Foremost Newspapermen Succumbs—Once
Here With Climax

Friends here were greatly grieved and shocked to learn of the death at Lexington of Colonel William P. Walton, a former editor of the Weekly Richmond Climax, at his home there Wednesday night about six o'clock. An affection of the heart from which he has been a sufferer for a number of years is believed to have been responsible for his death. He suffered a severe attack a few days ago, and was revived with difficulty, and the end came late Wednesday, just after the departure of his brother, Ed C. Walton, of Stanford, for home, after being with him nearly all day.

Col. Walton made his more than state-wide reputation as a newspaperman as editor of the Stanford Interior Journal, which he conducted for almost 30 years. He was a native of Virginia, where he was born in Hanover county in 1852. He came to Kentucky, as a railroad contractor and built a part of the Cincinnati Southern railroad, having part in the construction of the King's Mountain tunnel. The Interior Journal had been started a few years before and was wabbling on infant legs. Col. Walton, ably assisted by his brothers Tom Walton, a capitalist now in Atlanta and very ill—and later Ed Walton, quickly placed it on its feet and made it as successful financially as its was famous editorially.

In the early days, Lincoln county was a hotbed of lawlessness. Many stray members of the old Bridge-water gang still carried on with a high hand, especially in the east-end around Crab Orchard. Col. Walton led a vigorous campaign for law enforcement, and personally had a part in cleaning up the community. He was an intense democrat, and southerner, and his paper became known as the party oracle for all that part of the state. He never held elective office, and rather, paradoxically, the first appointive position he held, was as a member of the Reform School Board, to which he was named by Gov. Bradley, a republican but a close personal friend, their attachment dating from the time that Bradley was a practicing attorney at his home in Lancaster.

Shortly after the assassination of Goebel in 1900, leading democrats of Lexington were restive without a newspaper organ, the Herald having bolted Bryan and fought Goebel. A fund was subscribed to start a similar democratic newspaper, and Col. Walton was offered the editorship. This he accepted, and removed with his family to Lexington where they have since resided. He sold the Interior Journal to his brother, Ed Walton. After a short period he obtained ownership of the Lexington paper, the Democrat, which he operated individually until it was sold to the Herald and merged with that paper late in 1914. Then he bought the State Journal at Frankfort, which he rejuvenated and made a power in political circles at the capital during the Beckham administration.

Col. Walton had early espoused the cause and friendship of the young governor after the assassination of Goebel, and for a number of years remained his loyal friend and supporter. He later supported Senator Stanley as governor and as candidate for senator, with the same degree of enthusiasm and fidelity, there being a tight kinship between Stanley and Mrs. Walton, who was Miss Owsley.

Col. Walton sold the State Journal to a company headed by Beckham, and after a short experience as editor of the Lexington Gazette, and the Climax here, retired from active newspaper work, devoting his last few years to oil and other investments. He served at the head of several Democratic campaigns as publicity manager and in other ways constantly kept in touch with his profession, by all of the members of which he was so universally revered and beloved.

His first wife, by whom he had no children was Miss Kate Huffman, of Stanford. After her death he married Miss Mattie Owsley, daughter of Hon. John Sam Owsley, Sr., and to them three children were born, William, Jr., Owsley and Mary Walton, who survive with their mother. His two brothers and one sister, Mrs. I. N. Vaughn, of Richmond, Va., also survive. The intimate relationship between the members of this family, the brothers and sister, has been a beautiful thing, to those who knew it. Scarce a day passed but what one wrote to the other. Their fraternal love was a dominating force in their lives and the blow to the brothers and sister in

"Whisky Rebellion" Dies Out In Iron County After Local Officer Issues Warning

(By Associated Press)
Iron River, Mich., Feb. 26—The armed force of federal agents under command of Major Dalrymple who came here from Chicago to "put down the liquor rebellion" in the upper Michigan peninsula, were today withdrawn and the revolt itself "bickered out." The only casualties were nine barrels of wine taken by revenue agents from a priest's house, where the state had stored it for safe keeping. The wine was poured into a gutter.

An interesting dialogue between State's Attorney McDonough and Major Dalrymple preceded the departure of the federal agents.

"What I want to tell you is this," said McDonough. "If you or any of your men attempt to arrest me or any of my aids without due process of law, I will take you and your entire party into custody, and I am prepared to do it."

Dalrymple retorted that McDonough's statement was a grand stand play.

"You are a natural born grandstander yourself," asserted McDonough. "Now that you are here, just start something."

Dalrymple said he didn't care to discuss the matter further whereupon a motion picture operator asked both to pose for pictures, which they did, the acrimonious conversation continuing meanwhile and ending with a statement by McDonough that if Dalrymple said the community was in rebellion against the government, that Dalrymple lied.

TREATY UP FOR FINAL DISPOSAL

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 26—Another broadside of denunciation was lobbed by the irreconcilable opponents of the peace treaty today, when the Senate took up the subject under an agreement, to keep it constantly under consideration until disposed of. Senator France, republican, of Maryland, characterized it as an instrument of "hate and destruction." Reed, democrat, of Missouri, called it "a serpent of treason."

NATIVE OF MADISON DIES IN JESSAMINE

Mrs. Bessie Webb, wife of Irvine Webb, residing on the Keene Road, in Jessamine county, died Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock at the St. Joseph's Hospital in Lexington after a few days' illness. She was the daughter of John and Pattie Murphy, of Madison county. She is survived by her husband, four sons James, Alvin, Irvine Jr., and John Robert Webb, all young children; three sisters, Miss Ella Murphy, Jessamine county, and Miss Hattie and Gracie Murphy of Madison county; four brothers, Luther, and Wm. Murphy, of Madison county, and Elbert Murphy, of Garrard county, and Harmon Murphy, Jessamine county, and her parents.

DROPS DEAD AFTER FIRING AT FUGITIVE

News comes from Stanford that in attempting to stop Victor Rowland, a fugitive from justice, as he ran to make his escape Thursday morning, Deputy Sheriff Robert Lewis fired three times at the man, who got away. Lewis then mounted the steps of the court house and dropped dead. It is believed that excitement over the affair caused a heart attack which proved fatal.

Lewis was bringing Rowland from the jail to the court house for trial at the time. As they rounded a corner, the prisoner struck the officer and broke away.

Mr. Lewis pulled his gun, ordering Rowland to stop. The latter did not do so and Mr. Lewis pulled the trigger three times, only to find that his pistol was empty. He hastily loaded the weapon and then fired at Rowland as he was disappearing, but without result. Then the officer started into the building and dropped dead.

Rowland is 30 years of age and from King's Mountain. He was held on a charge of robbery and striking with intent to kill. Bolod-hounds have been sent for to trail him.

RAILROAD MEN WANT BILL VETOED

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Feb. 26—Representatives of the railroad brotherhoods today presented a memorial to President Wilson urging veto of the compromise railroad bill. The memorial was framed by the union representatives meeting here to consider the President's proposal to settle their wage demands. It asserted the bill violated fundamental principles of government by guaranteeing owners of railroad securities a right to charge rates that would produce a minimum net return of 5-12 per cent on that uncertain and intangible thing, "aggressive valuation." They called it "a particular, exclusive and special privilege." Moreover, the memorial said, the bill deprived railroad employees of their former right to determine their wages by negotiation and precluded collective bargaining.

Wife Blocks Divorce To Legalize French Girl's Child

Kansas City, Feb. 26—An international romance with an American domestic drama were revealed today in proceedings brought before the Kansas immigration authorities to deport Mlle. Madeleine Babin, daughter of a Paris merchant. Other principles in the triangle are Lee Shippey, poet, editor, and Chantauqua lecturer, and Mrs. Mary Woodson Shippey, his wife, a magazine writer.

Shippey went to France during the war as a Y. M. C. A. secretary where, according to the evidence presented, he met and fell in love with the French girl.

Last November Mlle. Babin arrived in Kansas City and explained to Shippey that she was about to become a mother. Shipped asked his wife to obtain a divorce in order that he might give the expected child a name. Mrs. Shippey refused to do this, but offered to care for the child as her own. Shippey would not agree to this and later left for California.

SAMUELS FINDS STILL IN HEART OF CITY

Local Federal Officer Conducts Successful Raid On A City
'Shiner In Covington

The Cincinnati Times-Star had the following about a successful raid on a 'shiner pulled off by Hugh Samuels, of this city, right in the heart of Covington:

Federal Prohibition Agents G. L. Hannen, of Frankfort, Ky., and H. M. Samuels, of Richmond, Ky., late Tuesday raided the home of Charles Harris, 218 Main street Covington, and confiscated a copper still and two copper kettles. They also arrested Harris on a charge of operating a still and selling liquor for beverage purposes, and three other men who were in the house, on the charge of selling liquor for beverage purposes. These men registered as Reuben Katin, 848 Clinton street, Cincinnati; Charles Frederick, 15 Freeman avenue, Cincinnati, and George W. Littlefield, who said he lived with Harris.

Harris was placed under $2,000 bond and the three others under $1,000 each. The officers said the found the still concealed in a gas stove, with coils running through a pipe to a 'jug at the back. The coil, they said, ran through a keg of cold water in the flue and liquor dripped from the end of the coil into a copper vessel back of the stove. They said draperies concealed the stove.

The Federal officer said they poured 30 gallons of beer, found in three kegs, into the sink. Harris was not at home when the officers arrived at his house. They locked the three men whom they found in the house in the front room and then searched the place. The Cincinnati men said they had merely called to visit Harris and knew nothing of the alleged still.

When Harris arrived at the house he was told he was under arrest. When the officers questioned him about a gallon of whiskey and a quart of burnt sugar they found in the place, Harris' eight-year-old son replied, the officers said, that it was "coloring matter."

Gambling Trials Start

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, Feb. 26—Trials of Henry Wolf, city license inspector and Councilman Len Slater, on charges growing out of the gambling crusade were begun in the criminal court here today. They were among the first indicted by the grand jury. Chief of Police Petty was a witness today before the grand jury in fresh investigation of gambling.

Both Wolf and Slater pleaded guilty when their cases were called, to suffering gaming, and were fined $250 jointly.

"Fi-Fi Tonight"

The curtain will rise at 8 o'clock this evening on "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop" at the Caldwell auditorium. This play is the Madison High School's production and is being given to raise the amount of money which the high school student body pledged toward the gymnasium which the Board of Education expects to build this spring on the high school lawn. A gym is badly needed and it is the hope that the public will respond liberally in patronizing the play tonight and tomorrow night.

At the United States Motor Truck Company stockholders' meeting held last week the stock was increased from $1,000,000 to $25,000,000 and over subscribed by the present stockholders. This company was taken over by its present managers in 1914 and capitalized for $800,000. In 1917, on account of the rapid growth, it was found necessary to increase the capital to $1,000,000. The Richmond Buick Company is local agent for this splendid truck.

ATTORNEY GENERAL ADDRESSES SOLONS

Palmer Wants Fair Price Commission To Reamin—Day In Legislature

(By Associated Press)
Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 26—The Simmons anti-handbook bill passed the House today 46 to 50. It provides a jail sentence of six to 12 months, on conviction. A joker, however, permits handbooks at race tracks.

Frankfort, Ky., February 26.—A Mitchell Palmer, Attorney-General of the United States, addressed the Legislature in joint session Wednesday and later lived with Governor S. B. Tamm, Lieutenant Governor S. B. Tamm, Senator Charles M. Harris, Senator Hiram Banks, Joe Bosworth, Speaker of the House of Representative J. H. Thompson and Joe Lazarus, Colonel A. T. Hert, of Louisville; Charles Fennell, Assistant District Attorney; Samuel J. Shackelford and S. T. Early, private secretary to Attorney General Palmer.

Attorney General Palmer's address constituted a review of accomplishments of the Department of Justice during his incumbency. He dwelt on the fight the government is making to reduce the high cost of living and to round up radicals.

In discussing the resignation of the members of the Fair Cost of Living Commission, Attorney-General Palmer said:

"I can see no reason for the Fair Price Commission having resigned of it really desires to co-operate with us in the campaign, and I am hopeful that on reflection its members will be willing to resume their duties which I destined to be helpful and effective in reducing prices."

"I am certain of one thing, whatever action has been taken by the department has not been in the interest of retail dealers, as alleged."

"The gratuitous insinuation on the part of Mr. Callahan in reference to myself I shall not dignify with any reply, except to say that I have nowhere announced any candidacy for any office, nor have I done anything in furtherance of any candidacy."

"It would be extremely unfortunate for the high cost of living campaign to be injured by political discussions or any personal altercations between officials, and I shall, on my return to Washington, immediately do all I can to straighten out and reorganize the situation in a way that will bring better results in the living cost campaign locally."

"In all states where fair price commissions have been in operation the work has been satisfactory and helpful, and I hope nothing will happen to make Kentucky an exception."

By a vote of 32 to 4 the Senate today passed the bill of Representative Lazarus, abolishing the State Board of Control and creating the State Board of Charities and Corrections, to supervise penal and charitable institutions. The board of eight members will serve without pay, except their traveling expenses. The members shall have supervision over all institutions, the principal executive official of which shall be a Commissioner. His salary shall be fixed by the board. It is likely to be $5,000 a year. This bill is the measure advocated by Governor Morrow in his campaign.

The Senate passed the Metzger bill to provide for the polls to remain open until 4 p. m., and increase the compensation of registration officers from $2 to $3 a day. The amendment of Senator Robert Antle, reducing the pay of the election officers to $4 was lost, 23 to 13. The amendment of Senator Frank Rives making the pay $3 a day was carried.

Senator Antle's amendment opening the polls at 5 a. m., and closing the polls at 4 p. m., was carried 20 to 14. The bill, as amended was carried 30 to 7.

The House of Representatives refused to abolish trading stamps by defeating Representative Lazarus' bill 44 to 40.

The bill of Representative T. H. Gamblin to provide for a 75-cent tax in graded school districts, was passed, as was the bill of Representative Jewell S. Webb, to provide for election of Mayor and Council from city at large in fourth-class cities.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR DEAD HEROES

With Presentation of Diplomas
From France To Be Held
March 3rd

Wednesday evening at 7:45, Jesse M. Dykes Post, No. 12, of the American Legion, will conduct a memorial service at the First Christian Church in honor of Madison county boys who gave up their lives during the great war. The special and primary purpose of the service is to afford an opportunity to present to the next of kin of the departed soldiers and sailors in the name of the French High Commission at Washington and on behalf of the French government, 28 memorial diplomas.

The memorial diplomas are being given by the French government as a token of love and appreciation of the French people for the services rendered by the American soldiers and sailors during the war. The service is of interest to the entire county and merits a large attendance.

Every soldier and sailor in the county owes it to his departed comrades to be present at this time whether a member of the American Legion or not, and most of all to see to it that what your dear ones fought and died for, whose sacrifice secured the victory, shall always be preserved, protected and cherished.

HARRY D. RICE, Com.
SPEARS TURLEY, Adj.

Suggests Permanent Record of the Heroes

Mr. Editor:—I hear that the diplomas presented by the French government to the families of those who gave up their lives in France are here for distribution. I have observed through the press that a number of other Kentucky cities have had memorial exercises on such occasions.

This leads me to say:—The history of the soldiers of Madison county has never been written, nor will it ever be, for two reasons:

1st—The material from which it could be, has been scattered or lost.

2nd—The gathering of that which has been left would take a great deal of time, and be very expensive.

Few Madisenians know that this county had more Revolutionary soldiers who were entitled to pensions than any county in Kentucky organized after 1794; that we furnished our full quota for the war of 1812, and yet only a few names such as Irvine, Tribble, and DeJarnette occur to me now as having participated in that struggle.

Capt. Stone recruited a full company for the Mexican War in 1846; Col. Chenault nearly a regiment of ten companies for service in the Southern army, while almost as many soldiers joined the Union army from our county. I do not think it would be possible to get a correct roster of any one of these companies today. Such a thing as a soldiers monument has never been given serious consideration although the Richmond Cemetery gave a lot for this purpose many years ago.

I am glad to see that there is being preserved the records of the boys who served in the World's War, and I hope the American Legion will see that it is done. There should be placed in the court house as soon as possible a bronze tablet with name of each soldier and sailor on it who made the supreme sacrifice. Is it too much to ask our Fiscal Court to make an appropriation for such a purpose, putting it in charge of the War Mothers? I think not. Thus will those who could make no greater sacrifice, be honored and remembered by coming generations, and history be preserved.

I hope, Mr. Editor, that you will use the columns of the Daily Register for accomplishing this end. We owe this to the future.—we owe it to the present. We owe it above all to the Dead.

Picture a Majestic in your kitchen. See its gleaming, shimmering, sanitary trimmings of nickel, smooth as glass, almost mirror-like in polish. You'll never need to black the cooking top of your Majestic—for it is burnished a rich dark blue, a genuine permanent deep-color burnish as lasting as it is beautiful. The Majestic range-frame is unbreakable, made of malleable iron; the body is of rust-resisting 99% pure charcoal iron—durable, and with all the charm of high natural finish.

But to realize the supreme beauty and solid worth of the Great Majestic home range, you must see it.

THE HOPTOWN JOTTER

Apropos of taking a "shot in the arm" to ward off flu, Tom Underwood says that Mrs. Dave Kincheloe, wife of the Second District Congressman, who is quite as talented as her brilliant husband, used to tell this one in her recitals between a whistling solo and a song.

"Ah jes' can't afford to be vaccinated, doc," said Aunt Mandy. "Ah's boun' to wuk all de time. Ah has to stan' up ovah de wash tub, an' if mah laigs an' ahms git sore, ah's starve to death."

"Now, anity," insisted the Health officer, "you'll have to be vaccinated somewhere. The law comnels it."

"Well, doc, ah done tol' you ah's so busy ah don't nebbah gits a chance to set down."

More Comfortable in Winter

Then he tells this one, quoting a prominent Hopkinsville preacher, who gives the experience of a small niece of an ardent Baptist in theory, but she had never seen the rite of immersion performed until one Sunday when her parents took her to a mill pond baptizing. It didn't strike her as being very comfortable, and riding home, she was silent for a long time, wrapped in deep thought. Then an inspiration struck her. "Mama," said she, "I've decided to join the church by letter."

Ceremony at the state house, Boston, when the fourteenth Railroad engineers, A. E. F., presented to the state of Massachusetts the national and state colors carried by the unit while serving through the great war. Governor Coolidge is at the left, receiving the flags.

IN OLD KENTUCKY

Mrs. Bessie Merritt received hurts to her hand which may necessitate amputation, and James Dickerson, 15, suffered a broken collar bone when a collision with another car was threatened, his machine turned a double somersault.

A Bracken county warehouse belonging to A. R. Langley, filled with tobacco bought by Liggett & Myers, was destroyed by fire.

The auto stolen from M. H. Jewell in Warren county was found at Auburn, with gears stripped, and another belonging to R. G. Price, stolen the same day, was finally abandoned on Elm street in Bowling Green.

In resolutions unanimously adopted, the Hawk Creek Baptist church in Laurel county "brands the Inter-church World Movement with all its teachings as the propaganda of the devil to try to destroy the true churches of Christ," and resolves to forbid use of its pulpit to anyone in sympathy with the move.

Samuel J. Webb, 86, who died at Lawrence county after an illness of only a few days, was the father of 21 children and grandfather of 54.

A chivalric remarkable for numbers and vigor followed the marriage of B. P. Luttrell, affectionately known as Uncle Brack, 53 years old, and Miss Edith Moran, 15, at the bride's home at Goose Creek in Casey county.

Workmen will begin in a few days the demolition of the old Ficklen homestead, erected in 1796 in Bourbon county and originally a tavern, on the site of which Edward Sims is expected to build a modern hotel to bear the name of his deceased father.

David and William Hurt, Van Lear, twins who enlisted at Ashland are so much alike that the recruiting officer says bits of different colored ribbon will have to be pinned on their uniforms to distinguish them of they are to remain in the same command.

Miss Sallie Word, 60, who fell dead from heart disease at her home in Barren county.

T. M. Funk, a star forward on the Georgetown College basketball team, sustained a broken arm in practice.

A heavy truck, driver unknown, rammed the kitchen at the camp of Lutes & Co., road contractors, near Wilmore and Mrs. E. B. Reynolds, who was cooking a meal, had a narrow escape. The truck was able to proceed.

Rev. Bernard Spencer, former Methodist minister of Charley, Lawrence county, who became tolltaker at the Kermit, W. Va., bridge when his health failed several years ago, died of influenza.

Gorman Ward, student at the University of Kentucky who would have graduated in June, died of tuberculosis at the home of his parents in Martin county. He served as a marine during the war.

Ed Foster was thrown by a mule and seriously injured in Casey county and was taken to Louisville in order that broken bones might be located with the X-ray.

The announcement from Washington that owners must pay the federal tax of $6.40 per gallon on all whisky stolen from warehouses is said to mean a staggering loss to a number of Kentuckians.

JUST ADMITTED TO THE BAR

Let's Get Acquainted

"Get better acquainted with your neighbor—you might like him!" That's a pretty good motto for a community like ours, isn't it? Town folks should get better acquainted with country folks; the merchants and the bankers should get to know the farmers—and how they are farming. Speaking for this bank, we'd like to get acquainted personally with every farmer hereabouts—he might like us enough to deposit money with us; we might like him enough to lend him some. Anyway, we could swap ideas—and perhaps add his name to the rapidly growing list of subscribers for

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Sometimes banks get acquainted with farmers by giving good advice, or urging good roads, or organizing calf clubs among the boys. That last was the way of one whose story is told in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN dated March 6. And we'd like to get acquainted with you through this Great National Farm Weekly itself. We know that THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN helps farmers all over the United States to make more and more money. It would please us to see you making more money too, so we stand ready to send in your subscription if you just say the word. One dollar buys it for a whole year—52 big, friendly, helpful, weekly issues. Get acquainted with THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN—you're sure to like it.

Not Merely Ordinary Hunger.

My aunt, who is noted for her skill at baking cakes and cookies, is very popular with the younger members of our family. One day while my small brother, aged 4, was visiting her he mentioned that he was hungry. Upon being presented with a piece of bread and butter, he said, "Oh, thank you; I'm not that kind of hungry, I'm only cake hungry."—Exchange.

Lumberjack's Appetite

We heard some time ago that the managers of the Lumber camps had decided to refuse free feeds to the vagrant lumberjacks, drifting from camp to camp, but not till we saw a lumberjack eat did we understand the fine impulse that led to the decision. After eating his fill, if one of the fellows should try to push his way down a logging road, he would get stuck between the trees, and, probably, stay there until he starved. —Detroit News.

Here an "Old Settler."

With a known lineage trailing through 3,000 dusty years the hare may well be called one of the ancient inhabitants of the earth. Among the oldest Jews the hare and its near relatives, the coneys of the rocks, were excluded from the ranks of edible animals; but as the flesh of the hare was found to be both nutritious and wholesome the prejudice against it gradually disappeared and it began, to be grown and domesticated for food.

GIRLS! A MASS

OF WAVY, GLEAMY
BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Let "Danderine" save and glorify your hair.

In a few moments you can transform your plain, dull, flat hair. You can have it abundant, soft, glossy and full of life. Just get at any drug or toilet counter a small bottle of "Danderine" for a few cents. Then moisten a soft cloth with the Danderine and draw this through the hair taking one small strand at a time. Instantly, yes, immediately, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will be a mass so soft, lustrous, fluffy and so easy to do up. All dust, dirt and excessive oil is removed. Let Danderine put more life, color, vigor and brightness in your hair. This stimulating tonic will freshen your scalp, check dandruff and falling hair, and help your hair to grow long, thick, strong and beautiful. It

The Orderly Pelican.

The pelican is not an attractive bird, but is commendably regular in its habits. The parent birds catch fish, and after eating their fill deposit the others in their pouches and carry them to their young. These pouches will hold from three to eight pounds of fish. They are elastic and when distended to their utmost nearly touch the ground.

Good Cooking All The Time

Don't be too quick to blame the cook for poor, unappetizing food. Perhaps it's the fault of that old, rusty range. If you want good cooking, you must have a good range.

ALLEN'S PRINCESS
COPPER
RANGES

Housewives have been praising them for 25 years, because they are absolutely dependable. The asbestos-lined oven heats quickly, but bakes evenly, and retains the heat so well that it means a big saving in fuel. Best of all, the body and top rim of the Princess is built of one piece of heavy, rust-resisting iron, which means that as the years go by, there are no joints to widen out, or bolts to loosen, thus letting in cold air to weaken the draft and cool the oven.

There are many other patented and exclusive features of the Princess beside the one-piece construction, all of them adding to its convenience and making good cooking easier.

Quick Action Corn Cure

"Gets-It" Stops Pain Instantly and Corn Soon Lifts Right Off.

A few drops of "Gets-It" quenches corn pains like water quenches fire. Gives you immediate relief.

"Gets-It" Feels It Out

The corn begins to lose its grip at once. In a day or two it is so loose that you can lift it off, roots and all, with a thumb and finger. That's the last of it, as millions have found out. It is the simple, effective and common-sense way to be rid of corns.

"Gets-It" is the never-failing, guaranteed, money-back corn remover, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfd by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Richmond and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Stockton & Son.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, I decided to

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . . ."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

THE MORE COMPETITION I HAVE THE FATTER I GET

Everyone knows that I pay as much for poultry, eggs and hides as any other dealer in Madison county and that most of the time I pay more. That's why all the farmers and others who have produce bring it to L. T. WILSON. Because I pay the highest prices and I am right up town and it is so handy to drive to my place near all the stores.

"GIRLIE-GIRLIE" MUSICAL COMEDY HIT IN PICTURES

"Oh Boy" is booked for exhibition at the local theatre on Friday is said to represent the only really successful attempt ever made to translate to the screen the complete story of a modern, up-to-date, "Girly-Girly" musical comedy hit. For from start to finish, "Oh Boy" is just one succession of laughter-provoking, audacious, farcical situations, yet maintaining the romantic story of the original musical comedy production.

The film version of "Oh Boy" is the stage version pictureized, the only variations made being those which were absolutely necessary and incident to the translation from stage to screen. All of the wit, humor, and farce-comedy of the regular production has been retained in the film presentation augmented by the fact that whereas the stage play was confined to two scenes only, the broader scope of the cinematograph has permitted a wealth of magnificent settings.

GUN AT EAR IS NOVEL EYE-OPENER

Rousing one's self out of a sound slumber is unpleasant enough at the best. How would you like to be awakened by feeling the cold nose of a revolver pressed against your left ear? In "An Adventure in Hearts," the motion picture, starring Robert Warwick at the local theatres today, the hero is a secret agent who escapes from the clutches of government officials and spends his first night of freedom in a haymow. His pursuer's gun is his alarm clock in the morning. Some idea of the speed with which this entertaining screen romance moves may be gleaned from the fact that the next night Warwick spends in the exquisitely decorated guest chamber of an Italian nobleman. The moving of a rat outside his room at midnight starts a delightful race and plunges the soldier into a fine melange of blackmailers, estranged husbands and wives and scheming villains.

"An Adventure in Hearts" is a picture of a picture. It is a well-known novel by Captain Dimpie.

DO ALL MY HOUSEWORK

Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could hardly stand, says Mrs. Kwarcinski.

Chicago, Ill.—"I suffered with displacement and irregularities and I did not know what to do. My mother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and use the Sana-Tive Wash so I took her advice and used these remedies and cured myself. I feel fine and do all my housework which I could not do before, as I could hardly stand up and I have three healthy children. You can use this letter if you wish, for your remedy is certainly wonderful for sick, run down women." Mrs. A. Kwarcinski, 3827 W. Oakdale Ave., Chicago, Ill.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been making women strong and well, relieving backache, nervousness, ulceration, and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularities and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Women who suffer are invited to write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

The song of the rail has come back to Frank Burton with irresistible appeal. Consequently he has sold out his restaurant to Q. T. Gatewood and re-enlisted in the service of the L. & N. railroad as engineer.
